Fourth Annual "411 in the 413" Berkshire Youth Conference

Workshop Facilitator Proposal

Railroad Street Youth Project, Pittsfield Youth Commission, Berkshire Creative, The Berkshire District Attorney's Youth Advisory Board, Pittsfield Prevention Partnership, and Northern Berkshire Community Coalition are hosting the fourth annual Berkshire Youth Development Conference. The purpose of this conference is to promote creative and innovative youth engagement in our community as well as offer ideas and resources for all youth while they make their transitions from one stage of their lives into the next.

We are seeking creative, dynamic speakers and interactive workshop facilitators for our 2010 conference, to be held 4/9-4/10 at Camp Becket-Chimney Corners in Becket, MA. Sessions will run 60-90 minutes.

This year we will have "tracks". Every youth will choose the track that interests them most. For example a "Nature Track" or a "Cyber World Track" etc, the tracks are endless!

Potentially what track do you believe your workshop could fit into?

Please give a description of your workshop in 4-5 sentences that could be used in promotional material. Please offer participants an idea of what kind of activities they might expect during the workshop as well as what they will get out of the session.

What (if any) supplies would you want us to provide?

How would you want your space to be set up?

Please describe what you would like to accomplish by teaching this workshop:

Please give a brief overview of your plan for this workshop:

Please give a brief history of your work with youth:

Are you willing to present more than once?
